THIS PAGE Contains a Feast of Good Things WORTH READING for All Bargain Buyers—It's

We have never felt it was a good thing to eat too much. In fact, the result of too much eating is anything but good. Same way with drinking.

We have known fellows go to a banquet and cat and drink everything that came along the line, not because they thought they needed it, but because it came along, and they considered themselves au fait in placing themselves in the position of feeling it would be a comfortable thing to loosen the vest strap.

the position of feeling it would be a comfortable thing to loosen the vest strap.

There are some banquets to which we have been, and our vest strap didn't wait for us to loosen up.

When we sat down at the table with Admiral Schley, however, and Governor Montague and General Lee and Mayor Taylor, we couldn't eat, for we spent most of the time trying to picture the Admiral standing on the bridge of that Admiral standing on the bridge of that this, with smoke and powder all around ind shouting orders.

And we wondered if he wouldn't be a fine fellow to put at the helm of the fillp of state.

But, then, with Governor Montague there, too, and General Lee, it was hard to get our bearings right.

Anyway, we figured out, like Congressiann Suizer did, that it was up to the Dems, to put up a man from the South next time, and we hought that Mr. A. J. Montague would cut something of a lefter in Washington.

We are suffering from heart disease ourself, caused by enlargement of the beart, and we beg our friends not to nominale us, for we do not feel like enlering upon a strenuous career.

But just look at the presidential timier that sat around Potentate Charlle Phillips at the Temple last night.

We must take off our hats to our clouds of the Eagles for putting us up

We must take off our hats to our friends of the Eagles for putting us up against such a fine chance to enjoy a flow of wit and wisdom that seldom omes our way. Mr. Jack Heintz is to be blamed for it

He it was who got the thing together one year ago, and he it was, aided and abetted by his friends, Guvernator, Berlier, Wilson, Bacigalup, Bilicy, Teller, Toler and the others, who succeeded putting the Eagles here on such a fine foundation.

The layout in every respect was a great one, and the only notable we missed was life Hohor, Mayor Taylor.

We hope the Disie Acrie will have many such birthday eciebrations.
